NOTICE TO THE MARKET

Transmissora Aliança de Energia Elétrica S.A. (B3: TAEE3, TAEE4 and TAEE11) (“Taesa” or “Company”) announces to its shareholders, the market in general and other stakeholders, that its subsidiary Empresa Sudeste de Transmissão de Energia SA (“ESTE”) obtained on February 18, 2022, from the National Electric System Operator (“ONS”), the Revenue Release Term (“TLR”) authorizing the receipt of revenues as of February 9, 2022, due to the availability of the transmission facilities to the National Interconnected System (“SIN”) in accordance with the regulatory term stipulated by the National Electric Energy Agency (“ANEEL”) and, adding to Taesa an Annual Permitted Revenue (“RAP”) of R$ 61.8 million for the 2021-2022 cycle.

ESTE is the project associated with lot 22 of the transmission auction nº 013/2015 (part 2), carried out in October 2016. It is 100% controlled by the subsidiary Empresa Amazonense de Transmissão de Energia S.A. (“EATE”), in which Taesa holds 49.98% of its total capital. ESTE is attributed a total RAP of R$ 123.6 million for the 2021-2022 cycle and is located between the states of Minas Gerais and Espírito Santo, comprising the LT 500 kV transmission line Mesquita - João Neiva 2, approximately 236 km long, and the SE 500/345 kV João Neiva 2 substation.

The Company reinforces its focus on the execution of the other projects currently under construction, totaling R$ 3.8 billion in ANEEL investments and approximately R$ 468 million in RAP (considering Taesa's stake for the 2021-2022 cycle) and is currently working on the efficiency of the ventures in order to leverage their returns.
